

I urge the FCC to protect net neutrality by keeping in place Title 2 for the good and freedom of the American people. I believe that it is evident that we as a country do not want this and it will only benefit ISPs and hurt every one else.